ZZ's Club Newsletter | Issue 38

Miami, FL

April 1, 2025

Dear Members,

Welcome to the most eventful month in recent memory.

We're kicking things off in The Sports Bar with screenings of the NCAA Final Four and Master's Tournament. On the 13th, ZZ's members will receive early access to reservations and an exclusive first look at Chateau ZZ's Sunday brunch menu. And then, later in the month, we invite you to Easter Sunday celebrations, as well as to a one-of-a-kind MFG culinary experience taking place during the Global Champions Arabians Tour.

It all culminates with the fourth annual CARBONE BEACH at the beginning of May. Please note that tickets for Saturday night are now sold out to the general public. But, as we explain below, we have set aside a limited number of spots for Members.

We're looking forward to seeing you.

Warmly,
Jeff, Mario, and Rich

FROM THE KITCHEN

Elysian Fields Lamb

Throughout April, we are pleased to feature the finest lamb in the United States, sourced from Elysian Fields in the heart of the Allegheny Mountains. A cross of British breeds, Dorset and Suffolk, the animals have year-round access to the grass fields on which they are born and raised. The lamb is fed on natural grain on a regenerative farm, producing a simply superior product.

Now to the good part: the lamb is being featured in two preparations at ZZ's. The first is a sizzling grilled lamb loin with a fragrant cumin rub, which we serve with shishito peppers, red onion, and celery. The second dish is a deeply satisfying braised lamb shank with knife-cut noodles, cumin, sofrito, cilantro, and basil.

FROM THE BAR

Black Pearl

Spring is here, which means margarita season is also upon us. In addition to all the classic preparations, Head of Bars Nathan McCarley-O'Neill suggests the new Black Pearl: it's a margarita "in disguise." The recipe highlights early-spring blackberries, so full of flavor, along with fresh citrus and aged reposado tequila from Cincoro. He finishes the drink with a splash of sparkling wine to make it even more sunny.
