1. GOSPEL Membership Terms & Conditions

1.1. Gospel Code of Humanity

GOSPËL is a sanctuary for expression and joy, devoid of discrimination, judgment, bullying, or any form of abuse. Membership to GOSPËL is open to those seeking the extraordinary moments in life. Members are expected to consistently uphold respect for one another and act in a manner that uplifts and enriches the community. Every Member of GOSPËL agrees to abide by the GOSPËL Code of Humanity.

GOSPËL maintains a strict zero tolerance policy towards harassment, violence, sexual misconduct, bigotry, racism, sexism, xenophobia, or any other inappropriate behavior. Should a member or their guest(s) engage in such behavior, whether reported or witnessed by GOSPËL staff on or off premises, immediate removal from the premises will occur, with membership subject to revocation without refund.

1.2. Gospel Privacy Policy

Any personal information provided in applications will be used solely for internal Membership management. We will never publicly share your information or disclose it to other members without explicit consent, whether verbal or written. In alignment with our commitment to provide a safe space for expression and celebration, we discourage photography or videography during GOSPËL programs or events. Additionally, to respect the privacy and professional or social status of all members, sharing photos or videos taken during GOSPËL affiliated programming is strictly prohibited. Violation of this policy may result in membership suspension or termination.

1.3. Gospel Dress Code

For all events and club programs, attire should reflect the spirit of GOSPËL – celebrating music, community, and global culture. We encourage guests to contribute to the vibrant atmosphere by dressing to impress and embracing individuality. The following items are not permitted: baseball hats, sweatshirts, sweatpants, hoodies, loud graphic tees, overtly athletic attire, overly ripped jeans, or any attire that does not align with our ethos. The enforcement of this dress code aims to prioritize individuals who positively contribute to the venue's energy and atmosphere.

Recommended styles include NYC downtown, contemporary cocktail, upscale playa, and boho chic. We often feature themed dress codes on Saturdays, encouraging guests to embrace their alter egos with or without a for special occasions.

1.4. Club Access & Guests

Founding Members enjoy unrestricted access to the main rooms of GOSPËL during club hours and may bring one guest, subject to capacity. Guests of Founding Members must be registered using the "Guest Pass" function on the app prior to arrival.Standard and Artist members can access the club during club hours by pre-registering through the app using the "Maverick Channel" for Guestlist status. Guestlist registration is limited, is on a first come, first served basis and does not permit guests.

All members have primary, priority booking access for bar and table reservations during club hours. Entry to the Tribe Room and/or other VIP lounges is not included with guestlist or reservations. Members receive priority status for VIP lounge access, which is granted on a first come, first served basis, subject to availability and capacity.

GOSPËL staff reserve the right to deny entry to any guest or member for any reason. All access during club hours is subject to capacity limitations. Members will be notified of their attendance status in the occurrence of a private event at the venue.

1.5. Nightclub Reservations Guidelines & Protocol

Reservations for bar and table seating commence 90 days prior to the desired booking date for Members. While not mandatory, submitting a request is STRONGLY advised for all Members planning to attend with guests, given the frequent high demand for our club service. Requests are processed on a first-come, first-served basis, contingent upon availability and capacity. Despite Membership status granting priority access, reservations are not guaranteed.

Bar reservations cater to groups of 2-5 individuals, inclusive of the Member, offering a standing service by bar staff without a guarantee of seating for guests. For larger groups,

Members may request table reservations accommodating 6-14 people. Table reservations do not guarantee seating for the entire party, and location is assigned by the GOSPEL team; specific seating location may be discussed at any time. Groups exceeding 14 individuals necessitate additional consultation with our Reservations Manager for eligibility and availability before booking.

Members bear sole responsibility for ensuring their guests comply with the GOSPËL Code of Humanity and Dress Code, with violations potentially leading to suspension or termination of their membership. Payment for reservations can be made using a Member's card on file or a credit card; however, debit cards are not accepted on-site.

1.5.1. Reservations Fine Print

All quoted reservation prices are subject to an 8.875% tax and a 20% gratuity fee. Despite booking confirmation, final entry remains at the discretion of GOSPËL staff, with reservations honored only for the specified number and balance of guests secured during booking.

Upon arrival, at least 50% of the total group must be present and with a balanced identity count for check-in and seating. The Member who initiated the reservation must be present at arrival for check-in, as no part of the group will be admitted without their presence. Due to consistently high demand, reservations may encounter wait times upon arrival. Reservations arriving 15 minutes beyond their designated check-in time may face additional delays or risk forfeiture. Penalties to the booking member's account including temporary and permanent suspension of the request tool will be issued if the Member Reservations process is abused.

All guests are bound by the GOSPËL Dress Code and Code of Humanity; non-compliance may lead to reservation cancellation. Our brand ethos emphasizes positive, matriarchal energy, and we urge adherence to these principles.

1.6. Member Events

A calendar of Member Events is published on an ongoing basis that connects to our core influences of music, wellness, and social gathering. Special access and rates of public events are also available for members, with guest accommodations determined on a case-by-case basis. Members are encouraged to provide feedback and suggest event ideas at any time. Members additionally receive exclusive or priority access to special events organized by GOSPEL outside of our venue.

1.7. Neighborhood Courtesy

All Members and their guests are expected to maintain a low volume outdoors and when entering or exiting the GOSPEL venue, especially during club hours. No outside beverages or food are permitted, and alcoholic beverages served inside cannot be taken outside.

1.8. Membership Fees and Charges

Gospel retains the right to charge a membership commencement fee (known as the "Join Fee"), annual or quarterly membership dues, and fees for entry to the Club premises as it deems necessary. The discretion to modify or exempt any of these charges or subscriptions shall solely rest with GOSPËL management.

1.9. Membership Database

Gospel Members are hereby obligated to ensure that their personal information, including but not limited to their name, email address, physical address, as well as their banking and credit card details, are continuously updated and accurate within our database. By consenting to Gospel Membership, you expressly acknowledge and agree to our retention of your personal data and photograph for the sole purpose of facilitating your membership. Any failure to maintain current and correct information in our database may lead to the termination of your Membership without further notice or recourse.

1.10. Membership Payment

Upon approval or renewal of your membership, you are obligated to remit your membership fees promptly. By furnishing us with your payment information, you explicitly acknowledge and consent to the immediate charging of membership fees upon acceptance or renewal. Gospel reserves the unrestricted right to modify our membership fees at any time, with advance notification provided to you regarding any changes in the amount, timing, or frequency of payment. Failure to settle the annual subscription (or any installments) within one month of the due date shall result in the deactivation of your Member account, thereby forfeiting access to Gospel forthwith.

1.11. Non-Transferability of Membership

Membership in Gospel is strictly non-transferable. Presentation of your Gospel Digital Membership Card is mandatory for check-in at Gospel premises. Members are further required to produce their membership card when availing bar and table services.

In the event that a Member permits the use of their card by a non-member, said non-member shall be categorically denied access to, or expelled from Gospel premises. Moreover, the Member who facilitated the unauthorized use of their card may be subject to suspension or termination of their own membership.

1.12. Policy on Cameras and Recording Devices

Gospel asserts the authority to seize and confiscate any mobile phones, cameras, video recording equipment, or other recording devices discovered on Club premises. This includes any photographs, videos, or other recorded images obtained or produced while on the premises.

1.13. Public Disclosure and Confidentiality

Members are held liable for any public disclosure or identification of fellow members or guests present at Gospel across various platforms, including but not limited to press or social media channels such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and personal blogs.

Additionally, members and their guests are required to maintain strict confidentiality regarding any information or conversations observed or heard at Gospel, recognizing the potential influence of fellow members within their respective industries.

1.14. Prohibition of Illegal Drugs and Substances

It is strictly prohibited for any member or guest to engage in the purchase, use, ingestion, possession, sale, or distribution of illegal drugs or substances while on Gospel premises or in its immediate vicinity. Moreover, soliciting Gospel staff for illegal drugs or substances is expressly forbidden. Any member or guest found to be in violation of these regulations will face immediate removal from Gospel premises, and their membership will be terminated accordingly.

1.15. Member Charge Accounts

All expenses incurred on the GOSPEL premises by members can be chosen for billing to their designated Member's Charge Account, with detailed statements accessible through the Gospel Members App. In cases where a member wishes for their guest to settle the bill, presentation of a credit card by the guest is mandatory before the member leaves the premises. Failure to reconcile any outstanding bills by the conclusion of the evening will result in charges being applied to the Member House Account.

1.16. Private Bookings and Club Maintenance

Gospel reserves the right to temporarily close all or specific areas of the Club to members and their guests for private events or essential maintenance, repair, or refurbishment purposes. During such closures, members are expected to respect the privacy of all individuals involved.

In cases where Club closure is necessitated by maintenance, repair, or refurbishment work, or if there is a perceived risk to the health, safety, or business interests of our members, guests, or staff, we will take prompt action to address the situation. Our priority is to ensure that any affected area, facility, or service is restored to full functionality as soon as reasonably possible.

1.17. Accidents, Injuries, and Club Rules Compliance

Gospel Members and their guests are obligated to adhere to all Gospel Club rules and regulations, as well as any signage displayed within the club premises. In the event that a member or guest experiences an accident or sustains an injury within or in the vicinity of the club, it is imperative to report the incident promptly to a staff member. Such reports must be made within 24 hours of the occurrence. Not only is this necessary to ensure the well-being of the affected individual, but it also enables us to fulfill our obligations related to health and safety standards and insurance requirements.

1.18. Confidentiality of Personal Information

Your personal information, submitted in connection with your membership, will be utilized in compliance with our Privacy Policy. It is imperative to note that all Gospel management and staff members are mandated to adhere to the most stringent confidentiality protocols. This entails a commitment to safeguarding all records and personal data pertaining to members and their guests with the utmost discretion and confidentiality.

1.19. Membership Rights and Privileges

As a member of Gospel, individuals are granted access to all rights and privileges associated with their membership status. However, it is important to note that these rights and privileges do not confer any proprietary ownership or rights over the premises or any property owned by Gospel. Members are expected to abide by the rules and regulations outlined herein, understanding that their membership entails adherence to these provisions without exception.

1.20. Liability of Gospel

Any approved items brought into GOSPEL by a member or their guests are done so entirely at their own risk. Gospel and its staff shall not be held liable for any loss, damage, or injury incurred by members or their property, regardless of the cause, except in cases of death or personal injury resulting from the negligence of Gospel or its staff. It is important to note that this provision does not affect any mandatory rights that members or guests may have under local laws, which cannot be legally restricted or excluded by Gospel.

1.21. Amendments to the Membership Contract

Gospel reserves the right to modify the House rules periodically, with notice of such changes provided through display on the Gospel Member website and app. The most recent version of the House rules will always be accessible on the Member Website.

1.22. Contacting us

For any inquiries concerning your membership and/or our Gospel Club Rules, please direct your correspondence to membership@gospelnyc.com.

2. GOSPËL Membership Application and Acceptance

By completing and submitting your membership application through the GOSPËL website, you hereby agree to be bound by the club rules outlined herein.

The GOSPËL Membership Committee convenes quarterly to evaluate and endorse membership applications, with new members admitted based on available space. The Membership Director retains ultimate discretion over the selection of individuals to join GOSPËL.

You retain the right to retract your application at any juncture. Should you opt to withdraw, please communicate your decision to our Membership Director at lauren@gospelnyc.com.

Upon acceptance of your membership application, you will receive confirmation via email welcoming you to GOSPEL Kin. Your annual membership shall commence on the activation date of your Gospel Member Account for Club access.
