October 1, 2024

Dear Members,

October has arrived, which means that we're entering one of the most exciting stretches of the year here in Miami.

We invite you to ease into the season with more foie gras than you could ever dream of. After years searching for the best in the world, we are confident that no foie can surpass the one we source from the Hudson Valley. We are proud to feature it in a variety of specials this month.

We also look forward to seeing you at The Tailgate BBQ on Sunday, October 6th, for yakitori, ice cream sandwiches, and a full day of NFL football.

Find all the details below.

Warmly,

Jeff, Mario, and Rich

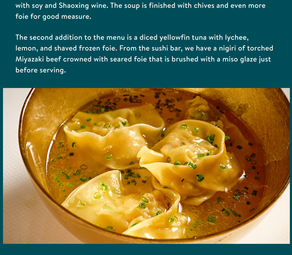
FROM THE KITCHEN

Foie Gras

This month, chef Mario Alegre and the kitchen team present a Wonton Soup featuring Chicken and Foie Dumplings in a luscious chicken broth accented with soy and Shaoxing wine. The soup is finished with chives and even more foie for good measure.

The second addition to the menu is a diced yellowfin tuna with lychee, lemon, and shaved frozen foie. From the sushi bar, we have a nigiri of torched Miyazaki beef crowned with seared foie that is brushed with a miso glaze just before serving.



FROM THE BAR

Totoro Old Fashioned

With just the right balance of tiki influences and autumnal accents, The Totoro Old Fashioned is the perfect drink for fall. Named after one of Japan's most famous anime characters, this particular old fashioned features Patron Reposado, which makes for a smoother, more vibrant base than woodier tequilas.

Head of Bars Nathan O'Neill then adds layers of grapefruit and cinnamon, a classic flavor combination made famous by the iconic Trader Vic's. The resulting libation makes for fun, and subtly complex drinking.

MEET THE TEAM

Nicolas Chambers

Last year, after serving as one of the international keepers of the Carbone flame for almost a decade, Nicholas Chambers brought his warmth and great skill to our club in Miami.

Nicholas began his journey with MFG at Carbone Las Vegas. He then became the first person in his family to ever move out of the state of Nevada so that he could be part of the opening teams at Carbone Doha and Carbone Riyadh. "The most important things in my life," Nicholas says, "continuing to reach new heights with this company, and my two sons." We couldn't be happier to have him as your Service Manager.
