January 2, 2025

Dear Members,

Happy New Year! It was such a pleasure to finish out 2024 with so many of you during Art Basel, Chinese Christmas, and a celebratory New Year's Eve.

But now, we are beyond ready to dive into 2025. The first month of the year already promises two fantastic events. On the 12th, the legendary Billy Durney of Hometown Bar B Que will orchestrate a blowout ZZ's Tailgate that we've had so much fun planning. And then, on the 13th, it's our third annual Cigar Night hosted by Mario, featuring a menu of chophouse classics and a selection of some of the rarest cigars in the world.

Meanwhile in Coconut Grove, the team at CARBONE VINO is greatly looking forward to introducing you to the restaurant, if you have yet to visit. And speaking of CARBONE, you may have heard that our first-ever book, published in collaboration with Assouline, is now officially available.

We'll see you at the club.
Jeff, Mario, and Rich

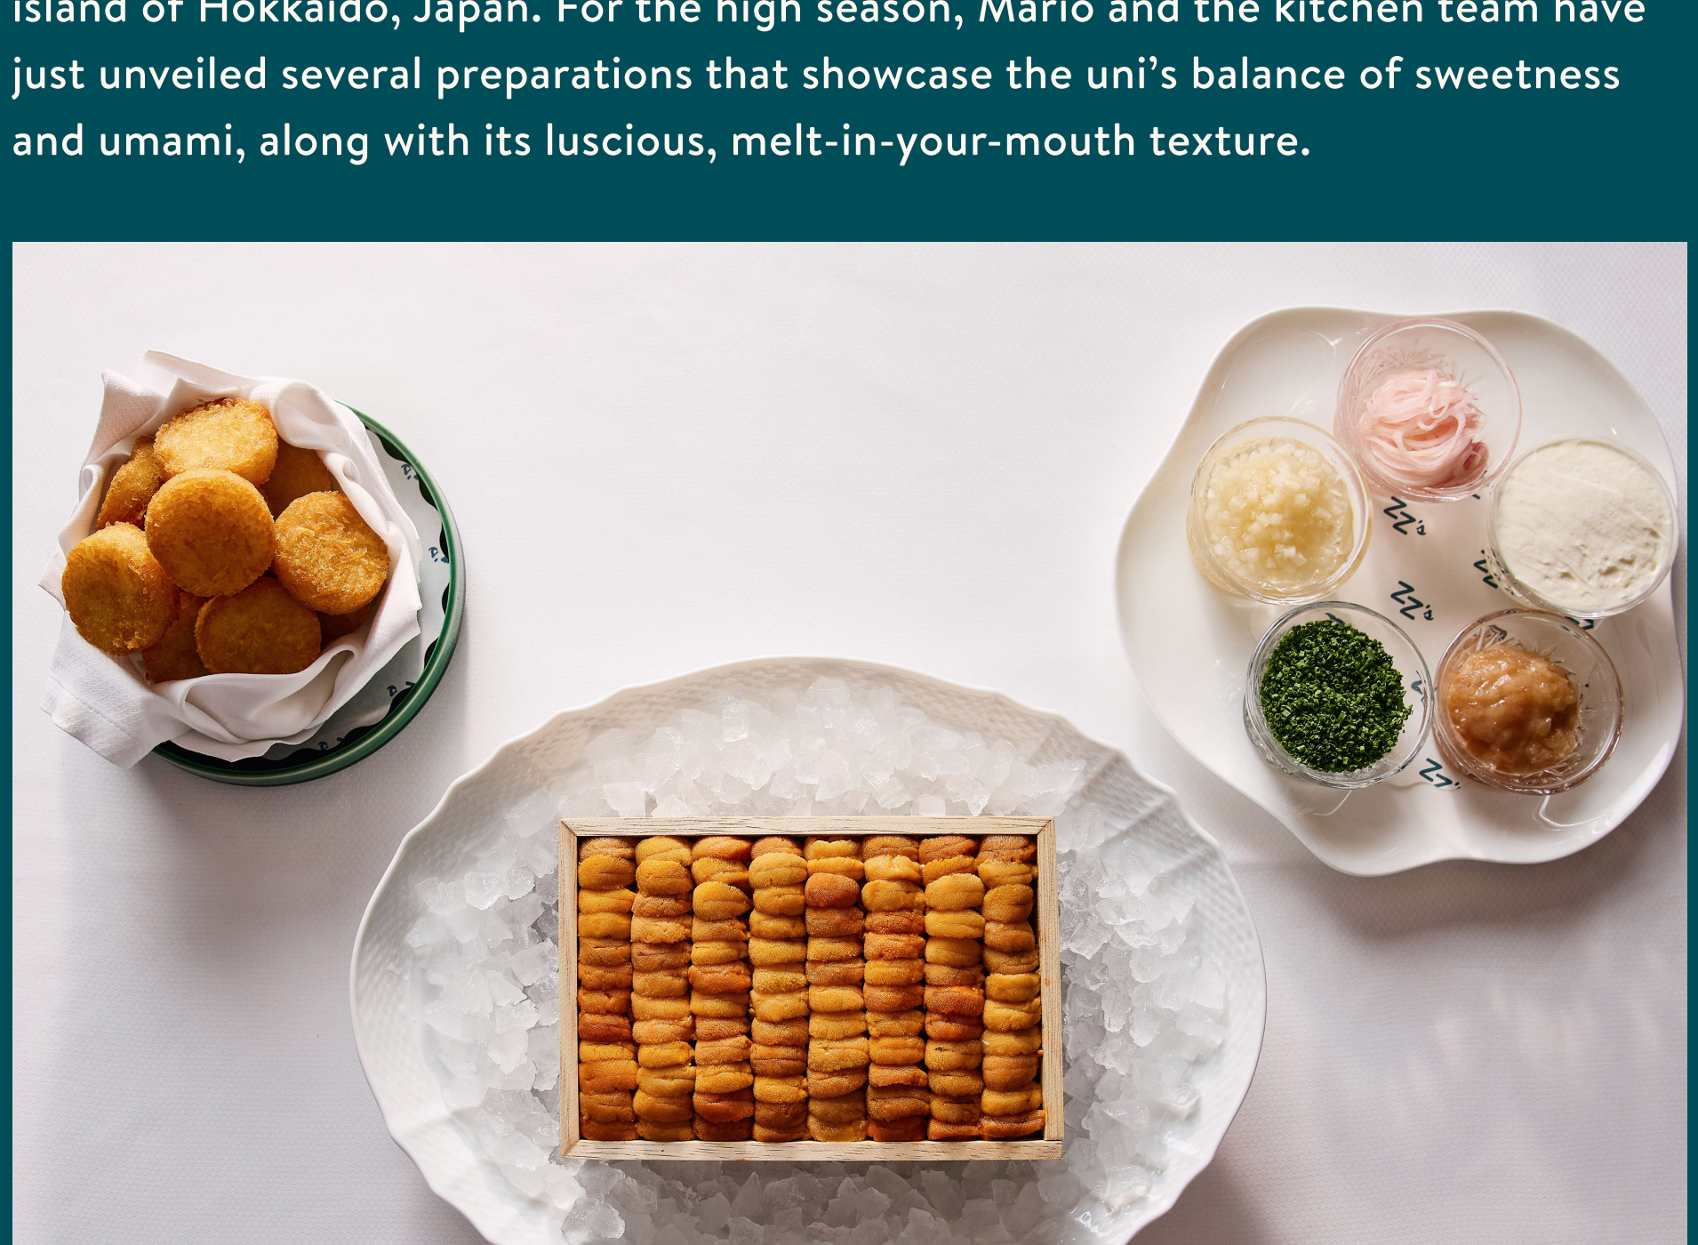
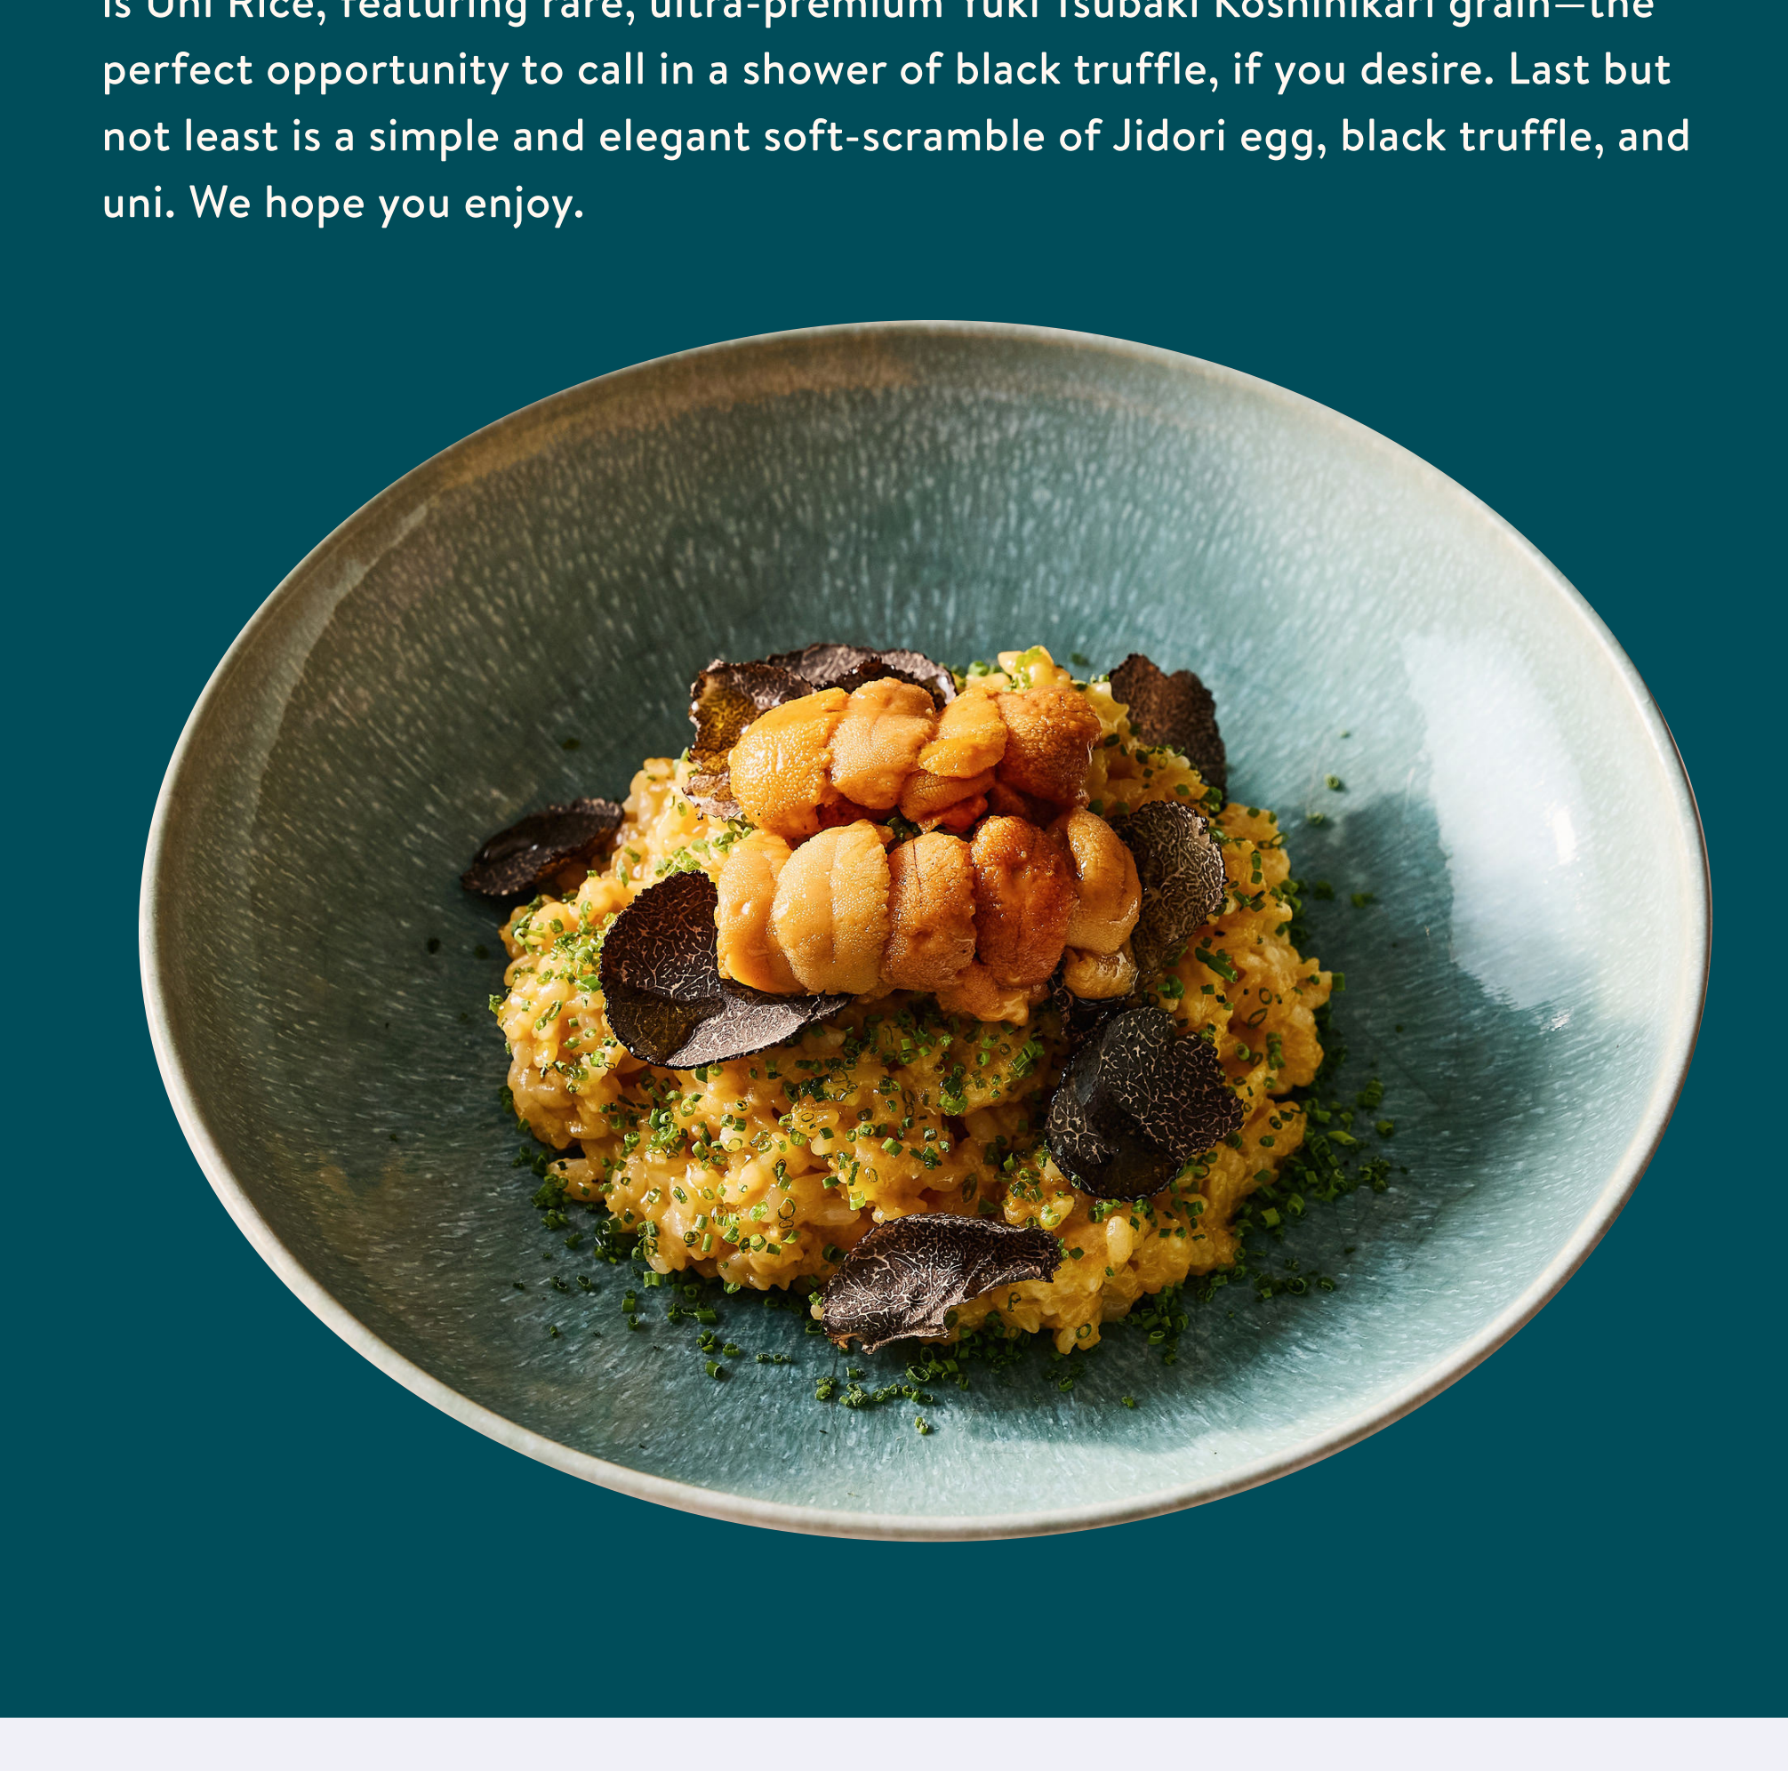
FROM THE KITCHEN

Uni On Stage

This is the very best time of year to experience the storied sea urchin from the island of Hokkaido, Japan. For the high season, Mario and the kitchen team have just unveiled several preparations that showcase the uni's balance of sweetness and umami, along with its luscious, melt-in-your-mouth texture.



Our special Uni Service might remind you of a grand caviar presentation, with hashed brown potatoes as your canvas to assemble uni, buttery umeboshi jam, yuzu crème fraîche, and assorted Asian pickles exactly to your liking. Then there is Uni Rice, featuring rare, ultra-premium Yuki Tsubaki Koshihikari grain—the perfect opportunity to call in a shower of black truffle, if you desire. Last but not least is a simple and elegant soft-scramble of Jidori egg, black truffle, and uni. We hope you enjoy.



FROM THE BAR

The Shakerato

Some Members observing Dry January might find themselves missing the joy that sipping an Espresso Martini (or "King James") tends to bring. Enter "The Shakerato," which features a non-alcoholic coffee liqueur, freshly pulled espresso, and date syrup to supremely satisfying effect.

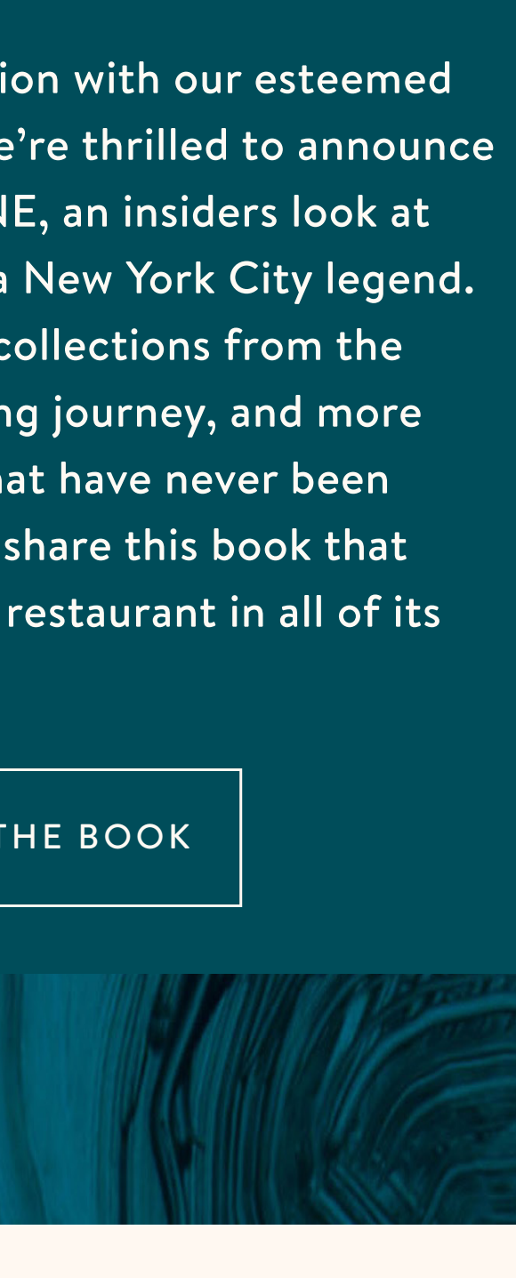
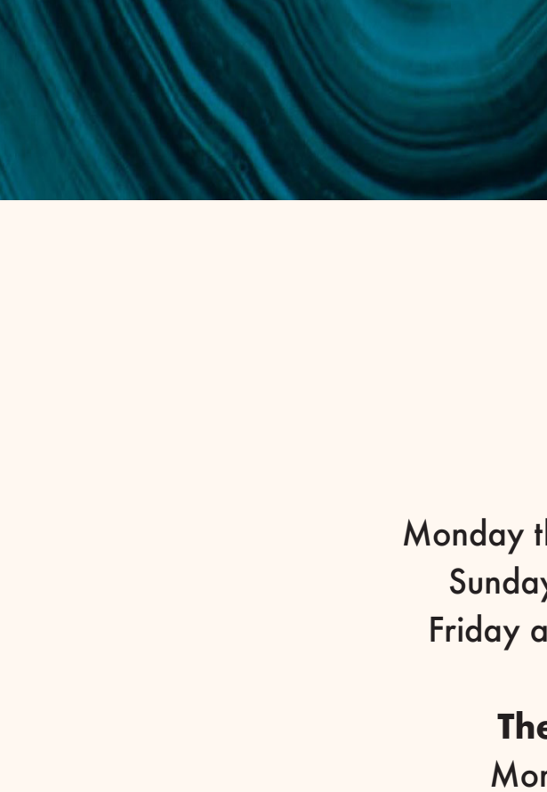
STAFF FEATURE: WELCOME KRYSTAL CAMBRA



We're pleased to introduce Guest Experience Manager Krystal Cambra, who is your point of contact for reservations, the person who arranges all manner of celebrations, and the presence at the door and on the floor who sees to it that our Members are always happy. Krystal began her career in hospitality as a bartender while she was attending college in Rhode Island. She would move to Miami in 2015 and work at the famously busy bar of Prime 112. That is where she got her first glimpse at the world of MFG, when CARBONE opened just around the corner. After getting to meet Mario, she says that she had no doubt that joining the company would feel like home.

ON SHELVES NOW



Published in collaboration with our esteemed friends at Assouline, we're thrilled to announce the launch of CARBONE, an insiders look at what it took to create a New York City legend. With anecdotes and recollections from the restaurant's decade-long journey, and more than a dozen recipes that have never been shared, we're proud to share this book that captures a night at the restaurant in all of its soulful, thrilling glory.
