February Newsletter

February 1, 2024

Dear Members,

How sweet it is to be in Miami during the height of winter.

Valentine's Day and the Super Bowl are just around the corner. We look forward to welcoming you and yours on both occasions. Also on the agenda: our monthly Poker Night and the second annual Presidents Cup backgammon tournament.

Meanwhile, there's an incredible new sake on the beverage list made by a legend in the world of fine wines and spirits. And the kitchen team has just received a very rare batch of wild live langoustines from the Norwegian Sea. They can't wait to share these delicacies with you.

Read on for all the dates, details, and excitement.

Warmly,
Jeff, Mario, and Rich

FROM THE KITCHEN

Live Langoustines

Live Langoustine season is here! With a sweet and delicate flavor profile, langoustines are known for their just-right size between prawns and lobsters. Starting this week, we're serving them two ways: crispy tempura with spicy mayo from the hot kitchen, and nigiri with ginger, chive and ponzu from the sushi bar.

FROM THE BAR

IWA 5

One of the most exciting new sake labels is now available at ZZ's for Members to enjoy: IWA 5 is a labor love by Richard Geoffrey, who served as Chef de Cave of Dom Perignon for three decades. Produced in the Toyama Prefecture, IWA 5 is a Junmai Daiginjo that comprises over 20 different sakes, including reserve expressions. It is rich, complex, and yet almost weightless--and a perfect pairing for caviar, sea urchin, pristine sushi, poultry, and almost everything else you can find on our food menu.
