Dear Members,

We hope this edition of the newsletter finds you extremely well.

It's a characteristically major moment for our club and wider MFG family: Chateau ZZ's continues to cement its reputation as the finest Mexican restaurant Miami has ever seen, and we're beyond thrilled to invite you to the third installment of American Express Presents CARBONE BEACH. From May 2nd to May 5th, the marquee event of Miami Race Week will return to the beach in more spectacular fashion than ever before. But, as is tradition, we're not giving up any of the iconic surprises featured in this year's lineup.

Read on for information on early access, which we are offering especially to our members, along with everything else that's in store at your club.

Warmly,
Jeff, Mario, and Rich

FROM THE KITCHEN

Pen Shell Scallop

The arrival of the prized Tairagai "Pen Shell" Scallop means that spring is officially here. For many aficionados of Japanese cuisine, the tairagai's firm texture and incredible umami here the hotate scallop beat. At ZZ's, we present this luxurious delicacy two ways. The sushi bar slices the scallops and dresses them with warm brown butter, green pistachio, and chives. The kitchen, meanwhile, roasts them in garlic butter and finishes with fresh herbs and bright yuzu.

FROM THE BAR

Japanese Gin

"The Miami Pineapple is the most complicated cocktail recipe known to man," jokes MFG Head of Bars Nathan O'Neill, "but this over-the-top drink is well worth the effort–" after all, the pineapple is a symbol of hospitality." A full exploration of the pineapple paired with Roku, a Japanese gin, the cocktail is bursting with floral notes and garnished with dried chamomile as part of a table-side show that accentuates the aromatics and has become a classic ritual of the house.

Marianna grew up in Southport, Connecticut, studied journalism at the University of New Hampshire, and cultivated a passion for wine and hospitality while traveling the world and tasting through The Court of Masters and the Wine & Spirit Education Trust, among other esteemed programs.

2nd Annual Presidents Cup Backgammon Tournament

It was a perfect Sunday in Miami last weekend, when we hosted the 2nd Annual President's Cup Backgammon Tournament. Over cocktails and cigars, members competed valiantly until there was just one man standing: Founding Member David Silverman. We'd like to congratulate David, our 2024 champion, and thank everyone who took part in what is becoming one of our favorite traditions.
