CLUB BARDO MISSION

More than a hotel, Hotel Bardo Savannah is equal parts urban resort and neighborhood clubhouse. A collection of ephemeral moments, chance encounters, and stirring experiences from morning to night. Exceptional rarity, tucked into a historic and beloved Savannah icon. Expect connection, a sense of discovery, transformational interactions. And always impeccable service.

Club Bardo is a social club inspired by the grand tradition of the early 20th-century salon—where community luminaries connect and share stories. Members enjoy use of a private clubhouse, pool, and fitness facilities, as well as perks including priority dining reservations, house accounts, complimentary valet and preferred room rates. Club Bardo is an atmosphere for creative expression, community, and wellness—true to the soul and spirit of Savannah.

Our guiding North Star is a commitment to building and protecting the culture at Club Bardo—a culture that is kind, curious, healing, fun, unpretentious, and inspirational. The policies established in these Member Bylaws ("Bylaws") govern the rights and responsibilities of all club members at Club Bardo, as well as their guests. These policies are intended to promote a safe and satisfying experience for everyone at Club Bardo, and to encourage everyone in our membership to enjoy themselves, enjoy Bardo, and make the most of life.

Club Bardo Golden Rule: "As a member, I pledge to maximize my enjoyment at Club Bardo while minimizing any interference with the enjoyment of my fellow members."

Club Bardo is located at 700 Drayton Street Savannah, GA 31401. Programming on the premises is managed by Hotel Bardo Savannah.

These Bylaws may be amended occasionally as needed by management and updates will be posted on Club Bardo member website at members.staybardo.com.

2. Membership Admission

Prospective members of Club Bardo may only apply for club membership after they are nominated by an existing club member in good standing. Existing members in good standing may nominate new prospective members by filling out a Member Nomination form. Prospective members must complete and submit a membership application which will be reviewed by the Membership Committee. By submitting an application for membership, prospective members agree to be bound by the rules of these Bylaws.

The Membership Committee has the discretion to admit new members. Membership applications, correspondence, and proceedings of the Membership Committee shall remain confidential and not subject to review by anyone other than club management, for the safety and privacy of potential members.

3. Billing and Payment

All membership fees and schedules are stated clearly in the application for membership. All Club Bardo members must maintain valid ACH or credit card on file for charges incurred at Club Bardo. By providing Club Bardo with payment information, members consent to being charged the membership fees stipulated in their membership application. Club Dues will be automatically paid by (i) the Club's debiting of an account at a bank or other financial institution on file with Club Bardo or (ii) billed to a credit card on file with Club Bardo and paid by the credit card company to the card on file at the beginning of each month of service.

Club Bardo members may opt-in for a house account. Members will receive a unique membership ID number once approved for membership for all house charges. House charges are available for all outlets, excluding private events. All house charges will be signed off by member only and debited at time of purchase from the account on file. Members and guests who purchase food, beverage, or products at the premises without an active house account must pay at the time of purchase. Payment must be made by cash, credit card, or digital payment. Members are responsible for ensuring payment of their guest's outstanding bills.

Members are required to maintain a Minimum Spend, which can be allocated to dining, spa, retail, guestrooms, or event costs. The Minimum Spend is not rolling, meaning if the Member fails to meet the minimum required monthly expenditure, their account will be charged the Minimum Spend balance to the account on file.

Membership access will be paused until outstanding member balances are paid. If a member's pause exceeds 90 days, club membership will be canceled.

4. Membership Renewal and Cancellation

Membership is for a minimum period of one year and renewable on an annual basis. Membership renewals are reviewed by the Membership Committee. The decision of the Membership Committee to approve or deny renewal is final and without appeal.

Membership renewal is contingent on the member's ongoing compliance with the Bylaws and other written rules of Club Bardo, the member's payment of Club Dues and Minimum Spend specified in the notice of renewal, and the member's account remaining in good standing. Notice of renewal may be delivered to each member approximately one month before the end of the member's current annual term.

If a member withdraws from the club due to a health emergency, financial necessity, or relocation outside of Georgia, as confirmed by club management, the departing member must pay all outstanding charges incurred at the club and will be entitled to a pro rata refund of any prepaid Club Dues. The Initiation Fee is not refundable. Any other refunds will be at the discretion of the club management.

If a member withdraws from the club for reasons other than health emergency, financial necessity, or relocation, the member will be required to pay Club Dues for the remainder of their year of membership, as established in their membership contract.

Members who withdraw or fail to renew membership cannot be reinstated but may rejoin through a nomination by an existing club member, submission of a new application, review for approval by the Membership Committee, and signing of membership contract with fees and dues established at present rates.

Members whose club membership is terminated by club management for violation of these Member Bylaws are not eligible to rejoin the club.

5. Membership Pause

Members may pause membership ('Membership Pause') for up to three months per year, subject to club management approval following a written request to the Membership Director. Members will continue to be responsible for payment of Club Dues during Membership Pause. Minimum Spend will be deferred and be applied to the immediately following active month(s). After any membership pause agreed upon in writing, club membership will resume automatically.

During a Membership Pause, Members are not entitled to member benefits or access to private member spaces, except as an invited guest of another member, according to the club guest policy. Members will be notified of the reinstatement of their membership including member benefits and access.

6. Building Hours and Closures

Members are invited to all venues during published operating hours. Occasionally, Club Bardo premises or designated club areas, restaurants and bars may be closed for holidays or special events. Advance notice will be given to all members regarding these closures.

7. Guests

Members may bring up to two guests at a time. Special requests may be considered at the sole discretion of club management.

Members must check in guests and be present at Club for guests to access venues. Members should not leave guests unattended at Club Bardo, except to use restrooms. Members are responsible for ensuring that their guests follow the dress code, rules and policies stated in these Bylaws and must settle outstanding bills prior to departure. Misbehavior by guests may result in disciplinary action against responsible members, up to and including revocation of membership.

8. Children

Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a member or a designated, pre-approved childcare provider in pool and fitness areas. Club Bardo (referring to upstairs lounge) is designated 21 years and older. Children are welcome at family-designated restaurants, areas, and events including Camp Bardo when in session. Members should be considerate when bringing children to designated areas and be mindful that their children, and their guests' children, are always their responsibility on the premises.

9. Private Events

Members may rent designated spaces to host private events, subject to availability. Members will work with an event team member to arrange food, beverage, and other event details. If a member needs to contract an outside vendor, a curated list of preferred vendors will be provided.

Hosting members must be present for the entire duration of the event and must comply with all terms and conditions of the Private Event Agreement, in addition to the terms and conditions of these Bylaws. Each host of a private event may determine the privacy policies applicable within the confines of the private event space. Members and guests attending a private event must have the host's permission before recording, photographing, videotaping, or publicizing the private event, which includes mentioning the private event in news media or social media, or otherwise publicly identifying or describing the event, the host, or attendees.

10. Dress Code

Club Bardo (upstairs lounge): Unless otherwise advised, sophisticated smart, casual attire with suitable footwear is appreciated and always expected. Dress jeans are always permitted. No bathing attire of any kind is permitted. No baseball caps or flipflops are permitted.

Saint Bibiana, Greenroom, Courtyard: Unless otherwise advised, sophisticated smart, casual attire with suitable footwear is appreciated and always expected. Dress jeans are always permitted. No bathing attire of any kind is permitted.

Bar Bibi: Shirts or coverups must be worn.

Members are expected to use reasonable judgment in how they and their guests appear in various areas of the premises. Certain events may specify a particular dress code to which members and guests are expected to comply in order to participate.

11. Food and Beverage

Members may bring up to two bottles of wine to Club Bardo and will pay a corkage fee for consumption on the premises. Members and guests are not permitted to bring any other outside food or beverages to Club Bardo (all venues) unless required for medical or health reasons. Families may bring small, handheld snacks to the pool for young children.

12. Confidentiality and Privacy

Staff at Club Bardo are required to adhere to the strictest confidentiality standards and pledge to maintain all records and personal information concerning members and guests in total confidence. Members may not share the personal information of other members, nor can they use members' contact information for mass mailing or promotional purposes. For a full description of our rules and procedures regarding privacy, please consult the full Privacy Policy of Club Bardo, available online at www.staybardo.com/privacy-policy.

13. Consent to Use of Likeness

Designated staff and photographers/videographers at Club Bardo will occasionally film, video, photograph, or otherwise record member events and activities for use in our programs, as well as advertising, promotions, public relations, and other commercial / business purposes. These images, audio, or video may also be shared with those who attended the event. We may ask you to share your experiences and impressions of Club Bardo, and we may use your feedback in our materials, unless the survey is specifically identified as anonymous or confidential. If you take part in these interviews or events, you consent to our use of your name, image, voice, and likeness in published materials, and you waive your right to receive compensation in connection with such publication.

14. Mobile Phones and Computers

To protect the relaxed atmosphere within dining areas of Club Bardo, members and guests must have all personal communication devices (phones, tablets, laptops, wearable technology) on silent mode. Talking on mobile devices is prohibited in dining areas. Members and their guests should take calls in quiet/designated areas away from the member dining spaces. Club Bardo can provide access to rooms specifically nominated for meetings and video calls.

15. Cameras/Recording Devices

To maintain the safe space of Club Bardo, no cameras, video or other recording devices may be used, except for remote work meetings in designated room or where otherwise allowed for designated events. Management and staff at Club Bardo reserve the right to confiscate any mobile phone, camera, video, or other recording device and any photos, videos or other recorded images taken on premises in violation of this policy. Repeated violations will result in suspension of membership rights.

16. Security Cameras

Members and their guests should be aware that for safety reasons, Club Bardo premises are under video surveillance. By signing in and entering Club Bardo, members and guests consent to recording by security cameras on the premises.

17. Audio/Video Sound

Movies, videos, songs, virtual calls, presentations and all other audio must only be played through headphones and should not be audible to any other member or guest present. Virtual calls should only take place in designated areas.

18. Press and Social Media

Members and their guests must not disclose or identify any other members or guests at Club Bardo in the public domain, whether in any press, social media, or personal blogs. Members and their guests must also refrain from identifying or describing any private event on the premises, unless authorized to do so by the host of the event.

19. No-Smoking Policy

No smoking is permitted in Club Bardo at any time outside of designated smoking areas.

20. Alcohol Policy

Club Bardo is responsible and liable for all food and beverage (alcohol included) services. Members are expected to moderate their alcohol intake and refrain from disruptive behavior as a result of their consumption. Alcoholic beverage service complies with all federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations, including minimum drinking age laws.

Personal wine brought into Club Bardo will be subject to a corkage fee for consumption on the premises. No other alcoholic beverage may be brought into the premises from outside nor removed from the premises.

Staff reserve the right to refuse service of alcoholic beverages to members and guests, according to the staff's professional discretion. Members who are repeatedly or habitually intoxicated or disruptive may face termination of membership or denial of membership renewal.

21. Property Liability

All items brought and left at Club Bardo are entirely at the risk of members or their guests. Club Bardo, and associated employees or agents shall not be liable to any member or guest for any loss, damage, or injury suffered by them or their property, except in the case of death or personal injury to a member or guest caused by the negligence of Club Bardo or associated employees or agents. Members are required to pay the replacement cost for any damage or loss of property belonging to Club Bardo or associated companies that is caused by the member or their invited guests.
Any member who willfully removes, damages, or destroys any property belonging to Club Bardo, its associated companies and services, or to members or guests on the premises, will face immediate termination of their membership.

22. Trademark Rights

Members and their guests shall not use the names, logos, trademarks, photographs, or other identifying features of Club Bardo, Camp Bardo, Barko, Saint Bibiana, The Green Room, The Courtyard, Bar Bibi, Saltgrass, and The Carriage House without obtaining the prior written consent of Club Bardo as to the specific use.

23. Community Culture

All members and staff at Club Bardo have been carefully selected to foster a supportive, respectful, responsible community that is committed to creative and social experiences. Members are expected to treat everyone at Club Bardo with appropriate respect and dignity at all times. This includes Club Bardo staff, whether on shift or onsite outside of shift. If a member or guest has an issue with any other member, guest, employee, or other contracted service provider at Club Bardo, the matter should be addressed in person or by email with club management.

24. Harassment and Discrimination

Discrimination, harassment, or unwanted advances will not be tolerated at any time in any form— including but not limited to written, verbal, physical or visual contact or gestures. Any member who is disturbed by any conduct at Club Bardo is urged to report such matters to club management immediately. Club Bardo is committed to maintaining a work environment free of all unlawful harassment or discrimination, which is harassing conduct or discrimination based on race, color, religion, religious practice, religious creed, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical condition), age, national origin, primary language, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital and registered domestic partner status, medical condition, disability, genetic information, citizenship or immigration status, military and veteran status, political affiliation, and/or any other characteristic covered by applicable federal, state or local law. Club Bardo's anti-harassment policy applies to everyone involved in the operation or business of Club Bardo, including managers, coworkers, members, guests, visitors, and outside vendors and contractors. Maintaining a safe, harassment-free work environment is a responsibility shared by everyone at Club Bardo.

25. Violations and Disciplinary Action

All members bind themselves to abide by the rules, regulations and Member Bylaws at all times upon acceptance as a member. Conduct by a member or guest that is prejudicial to these Bylaws or other written policies at Club Bardo may result in suspension or expulsion of that member and/or guest. A member may be subject to cancellation of membership for violating a provision of these Bylaws, engaging in any inappropriate, violent, abusive, or illegal conduct at the premises, for committing vandalism at the premises, or unreasonably disturbing other members or guests. An expelled member may not return to Club Bardo in any capacity. Should an expelled member attempt or be successful in regaining entry as a guest of another member, the member with whom they are associated will be held responsible. In the event of any dispute arising as to the meaning or interpretation of these rules, the matter shall be referred to the Membership Committee, whose decision with respect to your membership shall be final and without appeal. These rules shall be governed and construed in accordance with United States law and each member agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of local and federal courts.
This disciplinary policy applies to member conduct in all businesses operating on Club Bardo premises.

26. Policy Amendments

Club Bardo may change the Member Bylaws rules at the discretion of the management and will alert members by displaying notification of the change along with the most recently updated Member Bylaws on members.staybardo.com

27. Dog Policy

Club Bardo will follow Hotel Bardo dog policy. Service animals are allowed in all areas.

28. Pool Rules

The pool area is for both fun and relaxation. Children of all ages are the responsibility of their parents or designated caregivers. Children cannot be left unattended in the pool area; non-compliance may result in Member or guest expulsion. Running, ball playing, or other activities that can lead to injury is not allowed. Water guns, floaties, water toys, and personal speakers are prohibited. Changing of diapers is only permitted in designated areas within the bathrooms.

On high demand days, pool reservations may be required. A maximum of two reservations will be available at any given time. Members may bring up to two guests per reservation. Additional guest requests may be considered at the sole discretion of club management.
