CLUB RULES

1. The Club

Each member enters into a membership agreement with Club Hue (referred to as “HUE” or the “Club” throughout these rules). HUE reserves the right to establish and charge an initiation fee, annual membership dues, and, where applicable, additional entry fees for access to the Club or specific events. HUE retains the sole discretion to amend, waive, or adjust any such fees at any time, subject to applicable notice requirements set forth in the membership agreement or these rules.

2. Your Membership Application

By submitting a membership application through the Club Hue website, you agree to comply with all Club rules and policies. The Membership Committee reviews applications throughout the year and admits new members based on availability. All membership decisions are made at the sole discretion of the Membership Committee and Membership Team, and such decisions are final. Applicants may withdraw their application at any time by contacting membership@Clubhue.com. If approved, you will receive a written confirmation of acceptance, and your membership will become effective upon receipt of any required initiation fees and dues as specified in your membership agreement.

3. Under 30 Membership

Members accepted into the Under 30 membership category will retain the discounted membership rate through the end of the membership year in which they reach the age of 30. Upon renewal for the following membership year, the member will automatically transition to the standard membership rate then in effect.

4. Proposing New Members

Members are encouraged to propose qualified individuals for membership at Club Hue. Prospective applicants must submit a completed application form, which is available on the Club Hue website. All applications are subject to the standard membership review and approval process at HUE’s sole discretion. Membership fees for proposed or new members are determined based on the date of approval, not the date of application submission, and subject to HUE’s discretion.

5. Membership Renewal

Membership requires a one-year commitment, with renewals occurring annually. While renewal is automatic, continued membership remains at the discretion of the membership team. The Club reserves the right to approve or decline renewals, and all decisions are final and not subject to appeal.

6. Membership Database

Membership at Club Hue requires a one-year commitment and is subject to annual renewal. Memberships will automatically renew each year unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the membership agreement. Continued membership remains at the sole discretion of the Membership Team, which reserves the right to approve or decline any renewal. All renewal decisions are final and not subject to appeal.

7. Membership Payment and Initiation Dues

Upon membership approval or renewal, initiation fees and membership fees are due immediately. Initiation fees are non-refundable and required upon acceptance, while annual dues will be charged within 30 days of approval. However, during the Club’s construction phase, only the initiation fee will be collected promptly, with annual dues deferred until the Club officially opens.

By providing payment information, you authorize HUE to charge fees in accordance with your membership agreement and any Club payment terms. HUE reserves the right to modify membership fees, billing dates, and payment frequencies at its sole discretion, provided advance notice is given.

Annual dues must be paid within thirty (30) days of the due date to maintain active membership status. Memberships are personal and non-transferable.

ACH payments are preferred; credit card payments are accepted and will incur a 3.5% processing fee. Applicable taxes will be charged in accordance with local regulations and will be added to the stated prices. All prices, including initiation fees and membership dues, are exclusive of applicable taxes and fees, which will be itemized on member statements.

8. Resignation of Your Membership

If you choose to resign your membership prior to the end of your membership term, you remain responsible for payment of the full annual dues for that membership year. Any refund or waiver of outstanding dues is at the sole discretion of HUE and must be confirmed in writing.

9. Membership Termination

If you choose to resign your membership, or your membership is revoked or terminated prior to the end of your membership year, you remain responsible for payment of the full annual dues for that membership year. Any refund or waiver of outstanding dues is at the sole discretion of HUE and must be confirmed in writing. Upon termination of your membership by HUE, you will no longer have access to the Club or be permitted to enter as a guest. All decisions regarding membership termination are at the sole discretion of HUE and are final.

10. Membership Cards; House Cards

Members are required to scan their digital membership card upon entry and present it when opening a tab within the Club. Lending or allowing a non-member to use your membership card is strictly prohibited and may result in membership termination, while the unauthorized guest will be denied entry.

The Club offers a “House Card” feature accessible through its mobile application. This feature allows members to charge purchases, including meals, beverages, and activities, directly to their member account. By using the House Card or choosing bill-less payment, you authorize the Club to process charges to your account without requiring your physical or electronic signature at the time of purchase. All transactions will be processed through Toast or any other payment platform, and detailed statements of charges will be available in your member account.

11. Your Personal Information

Your personal information will be collected, used, and stored in accordance with HUE’s Privacy Policy, available at [SEE PRIVACY POLICY HERE]. Your information will be used solely for purposes related to your membership and Club operations, subject to applicable privacy laws.

12. Guest Allowance

Members may bring one guest as a walk-in to the Club at any time, subject to availability. Additional guests must be included through a reservation made via the app, with advance booking required. Guest allowances vary by Club space, and any guests beyond the permitted limit require approval from the Membership Team. Larger dining arrangements must be coordinated through Club Reception.

To ensure that all members can fully enjoy the Club, HUE reserves the right to manage guest access during peak hours or high-traffic periods. In the event the Club reaches capacity, members hosting guests may be politely asked to adjust their party size to accommodate incoming members. This will always be handled with discretion and respect, and special circumstances should be communicated with the Club staff in advance. Our goal is to maintain a harmonious balance between hospitality and ensuring a welcoming space for all members.

13. Guest Conduct & Member’s Responsibility

Guests are only permitted entry to the Club when accompanied by the inviting member and must remain with them throughout their visit. Members may not leave their guests unattended or allow them to stay in the Club after they depart. Members are fully responsible for the conduct of their guests and must ensure that guests comply with all Club rules and policies. Any violation of these rules by a guest may result in disciplinary action against the sponsoring member, including suspension or termination of membership.

14. Dress Code

Please ensure that you as a member and your guests represent yourselves in a way that is conducive to the elevated and refined environment of the Club. We foster a relaxed yet refined atmosphere, and encourage our guests to opt for smart casual attire. Management reserves the right to refuse entry to anyone deemed unsuitably dressed. Members and guests are expected to dress smart casual and appropriate to the hour. Flip-flops, tank tops, sleeveless shirts, beachwear, and other overly casual attire are not permitted. Management reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to deny entry to any member or guest whose attire is deemed inappropriate.

15. Privacy for Members/Guests

Members and their guests must respect the privacy and personal space of others at all times. Unsolicited interactions with individuals you do not personally know are discouraged and any conduct that disrupts another member's experience is strictly prohibited. Behavior that infringes upon the comfort or privacy of other members or guests may result in disciplinary action, including suspension or termination of membership.

16. Children

Club Hue is an adults-only environment. Individuals under the age of 21, including children, are not permitted on the premises at any time.

17. Mobile Phones/Computers

To maintain the Club's tranquil ambiance, phone calls are not permitted in common areas, and devices should remain on silent mode. Texting is allowed, and calls may only be made in designated areas. Members are responsible for ensuring that their guests respect this policy.

The use of laptop and other computers is strictly prohibited at all times on the Club premises.

18. Cameras/Recording devices

The use of cameras, video equipment, recording devices, or live streaming technology is strictly prohibited inside the Club. Members are responsible for ensuring their guests comply with this policy. Members are responsible for any charges incurred by their guests, and failure to settle outstanding balances may result in membership suspension. HUE operates as a cashless venue, and members are required to maintain a valid payment method on file.

For members who choose bill-less payment, a gratuity of 20% will be automatically added to all transactions at the Club to support HUE staff. Members are welcome to provide additional gratuity at their discretion

22. Illegal drugs/Substances/Items

The possession, use, sale, distribution, or attempted exchange of illegal drugs or substances by any member or guest is strictly prohibited at HUE. Additionally, no member or guest may solicit illegal substances from HUE staff.
