

PARK HOUSE PRESENTATION

"EVE OF DESTRUCTION"

JEN RAY

SEPTEMBER 23 - DECEMBER 31, 2022

Jen Ray, Power, 2022, mixed-media, 36 x 36 inches

SOCO Gallery is pleased to announce a special presentation of Jen Ray at the Park House in Dallas, TX opening September 23, 2022 entitled Eve of Destruction. The artist will speak from 6 – 7PM that evening.

Jen Ray creates paintings, performances, and sound works that celebrate female self-determination. Drawing inspiration and symbolism from a wide range of socio-political and cultural references, Jen Ray challenges static or reverential perceptions of feminism and encourages ongoing discussions about gender, intersectionality, and identity.

The presentation Eve of Destruction features works of art that hint at the real perils women face everyday. In many of the works, female figures are glamorously dressed in battle gear and a flower encrusted porcelain axe hangs on the wall within easy reach of the warriors. Although the works are presented as fantasy, they symbolize real world events and pressures. The exhibition continues the artist's interest and exploration of the cycles of destruction and re-invention on both grand scale and on the personal side.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Jen Ray, born in Raleigh, North Carolina, has lived and worked primarily in Berlin, Germany and New York City. Her work was shown in a solo exhibition at Kunstverein, Kassel, Germany, as well as the group show 'Walk the Line' at Kunstmuseum Wolfsburg and a performance at the KW Institute for Contemporary Art, Berlin. Her work has been exhibited in Paris, Zurich, the Netherlands, Denmark, and most recently at the Van Every/Smith Galleries at Davidson College, North Carolina. The artist currently lives and works in New York City, New York.
